

April 17, 1941.

Mr. Art Carter,
2711 Georgia Ave., N. W.,
Washington, D. C.
Apt. 23.

Dear Art:

I would have answered your letter yesterday, but I have been manauvering my schedule trying to see if we could stop in Norback on our way back. As things stand we had planned to arrive in Newark on the 10th of May. I might be able to move my games up a day, as the placards have not been printed yet, if the game in Norback was worthwhile.

Answer me by return mai, let me know what the terms for playing the game will be, also what time of day. It may be possible I could play on the 9th if it would be worthwhile.

Will appreciate hearing from you must as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ